

19th- 25th July, 2001

Premier enters 11th week on Sunday

King Faisal at the Accra Sports Stadium. Matches between the two clubs has – always been full of fireworks but with a-line up of goal machine, Ishmael Addo.

Looking at the current form of the porcupine warriors, Gt. Olympics will not survive at the Kumasi Sports Stadium.

Kotoko are poised to carry the day.

After serving their 3 home match ban, impressive Real Tamale United who collected the maximum 9 points home -away from home, return to their favourite Kaladan park to welcome fast improving Dawu Youngsters in another interesting encounter.

RTU better watch the striking instinct of leading goal scorer Awudu Adama if they want to win on Sunday.

The match is likely to end in a stalemate.

At the Tema Park, exciting

Tema Ghapoha would deepen the woes of Obuasi Adansiman.

At Obuasi, the Aboakese lads, Goldfields.

At the Accra Sports Stadium on Saturday Liberty professionals welcome Suhum maxbees in a thrilling encounter. Liberty are favourite to collect the maximum 3 points.

Godwin Ablordey - Kotoko

Ishmael Addo - Hearts

Parliament Receives Equipment

Rt. Hon Speaker Adjetei receiving Health equipment from Rev. Alfred Osei-Poku Director of CHAA.

By Our Reporter

Parliament last Monday 16, 2001 received some health equipment running into $25 million.

The Christian Help-work of Africa Association made the donation. A non-governmental Organization (NGO) headquartered in Hamburg Germany.

The equipment were made up of a modern hospital bed with mattress, one wheel Chair, a pushing Walker and 10 clutches.

Making the presentation Rev. Alfred Osei-Poku, the International Director of (CHAA) said the donation was a kind gesture meant to help in the health needs of Parliamentarians.

He pledged that when parliament finally gets its own hospital his organization would do its best to equip it.

Receiving the items, the speaker, Rt. Hon Peter Ala Adjetey thanked the donor and promised that the equipment would be put to their proper use.

Mills Denies Dispatch Story

Former Vice President of Ghana and NDC flag bearer in the 2000 elections, Prof. Atta Mills has denied a report carried in the current issue of The dispatch that he is quitting politics. Prof. Mills noted that although the banner headlines stated unequivocally that he was quitting politics, the body of the story was less emphatic.

Rawlings' Police Head

cont'd from front page

Odinga's house from the ex-president are a mixture of Nigerians and Ghanaians.

